

Transition Year Program at York University (TYP)

Offering motivated and committed adults (19+) the opportunity to achieve their passion of attending university!

Have you faced social and financial barriers to accessing education? Do you need to upgrade your academic skills and knowledge in order to successfully transition to university degree study? TYP COULD BE FOR YOU!

Successful completion of TYP offers:

A transfer into a York University degree program (on condition of any additional degree requirements)

18 credits towards a degree at York University (90 credits needed to attain a bachelor's degree, 120 credits needed to attain an honour's bachelor degree)

Visit the TYP website or contact the TYP Office for more information on:
